

EFFORT IS MADE BY BURGLAR TO STRANGLE WOMAN

Frightened by Screams of His Victim, Bandit Makes Escape.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 6.—Seized about the back by a burglar who jumped from a clothes closet last night after she returned home with her husband, Mrs. W. R. Stratton, 3241 Bay Vista avenue, is at her home today in a semi-hysterical condition from the effects of the encounter. The burglar, who became frightened at the woman's screams, immediately released her and escaped through a window.

turned home from the theater last night about 10:30 o'clock. The house was in darkness and, immediately after entering the residence she went into her bedroom. As soon as she entered the room, the door of the clothes closet flew open and a man leaped upon the woman. He threw his arms about her in an attempt to strangle her and she struggled with him.

"If you make any sound, I'll stick a knife in you," threatened the intruder.

Mrs. Stratton screamed, and the man released her and made his escape through a window. The woman's screams attracted her husband who rushed into the room. Mrs. Stratton was not injured in the struggle but was badly frightened. The prowler entered the house by cutting a pane of glass from a side window.

BANK POLICY OF UNITED STATES DECLARED SOUND

Speaker Warns of Attempt to Change Federal Reserve System.

Critics of the deflation policy of the Federal Reserve board were severely scored by Guy W. Wolf, manager of the Federal Reserve department of Klink, Bean & Company, in an address to the members of the Oakland Rotary club at the Hotel Oakland today.

Wolf spoke on the subject, "The Functions and Policy of the Federal Reserve System," and declared that the nation-wide movement now on to change the form of organization of the Federal Reserve system is a danger to the stability of American business and will jeopardize the chances of a speedy recovery.

"For more than a century we in the United States have experimented with our banking and currency system," he said. "We were so unsuccessful in our attempts to establish a stable banking system and an elastic currency that we had begun to believe we were doomed to periodic panics and business depressions. Long after every other country in the world had established a sound banking system the United States was still playing with an outworn method of currency issue and credit expansion."

SAFE SYSTEM SOUGHT.
"The national bank act was passed during the Civil War emergency, and was amended three times during the ensuing 50 years in vain attempts to prevent the recurring panics that harassed the country every twenty years."

"In brief the national banking system provided for currency issues against government bonds bought by the banks, and these currency issues, bank notes, were the supposedly elastic feature of the system. An intricate system of reserves, under which the country bank carried reserves in the city banks, was supposed to provide the necessary credit facilities for meeting sudden emergencies in any emergency."

"As it worked out in practice, however, notably in the panic of 1907, the reserve city banks refused to give up their gold on the demand of their depositor country bank correspondents, and we had the spectacle of banks all over the country refusing to honor checks drawn by local depositors."

FEDERAL RESERVE ACT.
"The Taft administration witnessed various attempts to reform the system, the underlying idea of the Aldrich bill being a central bank of issue after the fashion of the First and Second National Banks of a century ago. The American people are opposed to a central bank, however, and the Aldrich bill failed."

"One of the first acts of the Wilson administration was the passage of the Federal Reserve Act, which had the following features:

"1. The country divided into 12 districts with a regional reserve bank in each district.
2. National banks in each district must, and State banks may, be members of the reserve system by subscribing to the stock of the local reserve bank, which is a bank for members with all the stock owned by the member banks."

"3. Member banks in need of funds may take their customer notes and bills to the reserve bank and exchange them for currency to meet local needs."

"4. In time of stress in any district the district reserve bank may borrow from the reserve banks in other districts which are not so hard pressed for funds. This provision enables such seasonal demands for credit as crop moving to be met without difficulty."

PANIC AVERTED.
"In my opinion without the Federal Reserve System, we should have seen the most disastrous panic in our history as an aftermath of the war. The enemies of the system today are the farmers who wanted to hold their crops in the face of falling prices and to be exempt from the consequences of the deflation that had to be general. Other enemies are the politicians who think they are the leaders of the farmers, and the college-bred, self-appointed farmer leaders. They have fathered bills in Congress which aim to change the structure of the reserve system."

"But now is the wrong time to try to make any changes in our credit and banking system. This system financed the war for us, and raised $24,000,000,000 in 24 months without the payment of a single cent in commissions or the discounting of the money market; it financed the movement of 2,000,000 soldiers to France and back again, and the shipment of billions of tons of munitions and supplies in this country and across the ocean in guided deflation after the war so that we have reached solid ground without serious inflation and without any dislocation to industry."

"Every business man who wishes his commercial security during the next few years must take off his coat and help fight back the horde which now assails our banking and currency system."

Espionage System Is Clew to Murder

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—A trail of intrigue, involving the secret service of at least two foreign powers, was believed by special investigators today to lie behind the mysterious murder of Nairo Yasuhara, a Japanese, found strangled in the Hotel Empire yesterday.

A general alarm has been sent out for another Japanese, who is believed to have lured the man to his death. Papers found upon the body of the victim indicate he was in the employ of another foreign power. Testimonials from a British government representative are among the documents which have been turned over to investigators. That the papers were left carelessly scattered upon the body of the victim led to a suggestion of revenge.

Boys Choose Roof For Smoking 'Den'

ALAMEDA, Oct. 6.—The old stunt of going behind the barn to smoke cigarettes has been eclipsed by a band of Alameda youths who go up on the roof. This time, however, they chose the roof of J. Callenberg in Park street. Hearing the crackling of footsteps on the shingles, the owner climbed up to see what was going on. When he saw the group of boys he telephoned the police station. By the time that Martin O'Keefe arrived on the scene the youngsters had hid themselves in parts unknown.

Meusels Wager a Thanksgiving Meal On Series

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—The Meusel family will enjoy a Thanksgiving dinner, but the question of who will foot the bill remains an issue between the two brothers—Emil and Bob—to be settled by their battling in the world's series.

Emil, the elder of the two, left fielder for the Giants and a National League batting star, let it be known today that he had proposed to Brother Bob, hard-hitting Yankee right-wielder, a little series of their own, the one who makes the least hits in the series to supply the dinner for the whole Meusel family next month. The younger Meusel willingly accepted.

Colonel Woods Will Head Jobless Agency

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Colonel Arthur Woods, former police commissioner of New York, will head the central agency to be established here by the national conference on unemployment, to coordinate emergency relief of the workless wage earners throughout the country.

The conference desires, Secretary Hoover said, in making the announcement, to see the whole country organized on a community basis to effect the quick distribution of jobs to the involuntary idle through efficient operation of the emergency program.

Informal machinery, voluntary in its nature, is being set up in the form of one of the conference committees, which under the direction of Colonel Woods, can receive reports from various communities of the progress being made and transmit to the different localities successful employment methods tried out in others.

MASONIC DEGREES

SANTA ROSA, Oct. 6.—The fourth, fifth and sixth degrees of Masonry were conferred upon Luther Burbank, world known plant wizard, at a class initiation held by the Scottish Rite Masons at their cathedral here last night. One of the largest gatherings in the history of the cathedral was assembled to witness the ceremonies.

forces were fired upon and replied in kind, killing one person.

Later the auxiliary crown forces appeared in force and began firing wildly. They roughly treated known Republicans and entered some Sinn Féin dwellings. Sinn Féiners charged that the auxiliary forces were drunk.

A strong protest will be made by Sinn Féin military leaders to British authorities demanding punishment of the auxiliaries involved.

CORK, Oct. 5.—Black and Tans, many of them said to have been drunk, are alleged by inhabitants of Dunmanway to have caused a reign of terror, reminiscent of pre-armistice days, in that County Cork village last night. Volleys were poured down the streets, houses entered and citizens maltreated, and one man killed, according to eye-witnesses.

The crown forces say they were first fired on from the town.

WATCH ORPHEUM ADS IN TRIBUNE AND WIN TICKETS

Here's Easy Way to See Show
by Your Auto License Number.

Two seats for the Oakland Orpheum free! How's that? Just make it a point to memorize your automobile license number, because, beginning next Monday it may be worth the price of two Orpheum seats—the best in the house.

Here's the stunt, in a few brief words. Beginning next Monday there will appear in the ads for the Oakland Orpheum—in The Oakland TRIBUNE exclusively—the license number of some automobile. This number will be selected at random somewhere on the streets of Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley, by Manager Lew Newcomb of the Oakland Orpheum—or he may drop into some parking station or garage looking for the lucky license number.

On the following day this number will appear in the Orpheum ad in The TRIBUNE only. If it is YOUR number—all you have to do is call on the Circulation Manager at the office of The Oakland TRIBUNE and you will be given an order for two seats at the Oakland Orpheum. The order will be good for any performance except on Saturday, Sunday or a holiday.

There it is. All you have to do is watch the Oakland Orpheum ads in The Oakland TRIBUNE exclusively—and if your automobile license number appears—go and get your order for the Orpheum seats from The TRIBUNE.

The moral is: Watch the Orpheum ad every day—exclusively in The TRIBUNE—for your auto license number. It will pay you.

TRIBUNE'S RADIO SENDS BASEBALL NEWS TO SAILORS

Box Score of Game and Detailed Account First On Streets in Eastbay.

Tradition which has lurked behind printing presses, and in fact, in every niche and corner of the TRIBUNE'S establishment for more than forty years, coming out and proclaiming its presence only after some great achievement in the course of modern events, stepped out of its hiding place yesterday during the first game of the world's series long enough to perform a gigantic task. Consequently The TRIBUNE was first in giving an accurate account of the big game to its readers throughout the entire Eastbay district.

Although it reached the street along with other newspapers, it carried a detailed account of each play and a box score for the full nine innings. No other paper accomplished that in the first street editions.

The TRIBUNE was the first paper in the State to tell the entire Pacific Coast and ships as far as 2000 miles at sea, the total hits, runs and errors after each half inning. This was done by wireless telephone. The TRIBUNE'S station on top of the Hotel Oakland was as much as ten minutes ahead of any other wireless service on the entire coast. This wireless service furnished thousands of ball fans with the first news of the game. It was heard first of all services by the sailors on the battleships at sea and by trans-Pacific liners approaching this coast within a radius of 2000 miles.

In Alameda and Berkeley TRIBUNE bulletins afforded hundreds an opportunity to follow the game from the time it started at the polo grounds in New York until it ended.

Don't Spoil Your Hair— By Washing It

When you wash your hair, be careful what you use. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and does anything else all to pieces. You can get Mulsified at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified. Advertisement.

King Is Mistaken For His Chauffeur

PARIS, Oct. 6.—Three detectives in a fast-touring car were sent to the Versailles gate by Prefect of Police Leullier to meet King Ferdinand of Rumania when he drove in from Tours the other day. It was quite dark when the regal automobile reached the walls of Paris but the detectives spotted it and one of them went up to the chauffeur and asked: "Is this the King's car?" "It is," was the reply. "Then, sonny," said the detective, tapping the driver familiarly on the shoulder, "keep your eye on this red machine ahead and don't lose sight of it. We will take you straight to the King's hotel. You are a lucky dog to be driving a king."

More than a hundred Chinese are attending colleges in the United States.

Then walking back a couple of steps to the window of the limousine and coming rigidly to attention, the detective saluted the occupant who returned the salute. "You are indeed a lucky man to be driving a king," said the driver of the King's car over his shoulder to the man in the limousine. It enables you to sit on the cushion and let the King do his own driving. The detective saw the story in the newspaper the next day and went to the King's hotel to apologize. He returned 1000 francs richer.

NINE MOROS ARE SLAIN IN BATTLE ON CONSTABULARY

Governor Moore of Sulu Province Goes to Make Peace and Natives Attack.

MANILA, Oct. 6.—(By Associated Press.)—Nine Moros were killed in a fight at Kulaykulan, Sulu province, between thirty Moros and a detachment of the Philippine constabulary numbering sixteen men headed by Governor Carl Moore of Sulu province, according to an official despatch received at constabulary headquarters here.

Governor Moore accompanied by the constabulary troops went to Kulaykulan to negotiate a peace with a band of Moros under Chief Aji.

According to the advice received

HOME LOST BY WOMAN'S FRAUD, SAYS MAN, 70

Charging he was induced to part with his home through fraud, Thomas D. Trew, "more than 70 years of age and infirm," according to the complaint, has filed a suit with County Clerk George D. Gross to recover the property from Mrs. Lena Pollock.

Trew's home was at 981 Eighth avenue. He says he agreed with Mrs. Pollock on September 13 that she should have the home in return for caring for him the balance of his life. Two days later, he declares, he signed a document at Mrs. Pollock's home, 2467 East Twenty-second street, which he believed to be this agreement.

A few days later, he charges, Mrs. Pollock, abused him, forced him to leave the home and turned it against him, informing him he had signed a bill of sale giving her the home for $10.

When taken to headquarters, where thirty of the Moros attacked the governor's party with bolts and the constabulary opened fire, Chief Aji and eight of his men were killed while one constabulary troops was slightly wounded.

HEIR JAILED ON NEGLECT CHARGE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.—Thomas Wakefield, heir to an estate in Milwaukee, which it is said will net him $60,000 a year, was arrested at the Hotel Maryland today for abandonment and neglect of his wife, Catherine Wakefield. The latter accompanied Detectives Cottle McCausland and Gallatin when they went before daylight to serve the warrant. They say that Shirley Burlington, night clerk at the hotel, declined to tell them the number of Wakefield's room, saying that it was only a woman's case and she was not going to disturb a guest. The officers quickly brought him to time by taking him into custody on a charge of interfering with the police.

When taken to headquarters, Wakefield had a large sum of money in his possession. A detective suggested that he give some of it to his wife. "I wouldn't give her a dollar," he declared.

CHIEF WITNESS IN BOOZE SCANDAL IN S. F. DISAPPEARS

Jack Lawrence, Confessed Rum Runner, Being Sought.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.—Federal officials today instituted a search for Jack Lawrence, confessed liquor runner who was to have been the government's principal witness in the so-called "booze controversy," which has involved Governor Cottle and the Old Doodle Do restaurant prohibition enforcement officers Ray Benjamin, Republican leader, Roscoe (L. L.) Abuckley and other persons and agencies.

Lawrence has disappeared a witness for his arrest has been issued by United States Commissioner Thomas Hyden and until the missing man is apprehended according to Robert McCormick, assistant United States attorney general, the government will be severely handicapped in clearing up this city's latest booze scandal. The belief has been expressed that Lawrence may have departed for Australia, his home on the steamer Dunvegan, which left for the Orient last Tuesday. The variant charges Lawrence specifically is a violation of the prohibition act and McCormick has requested United States Marshal Holohan to make every effort to locate the fugitive.

McCormick today reiterated his claim that he was not responsible for the custody of Lawrence and that the duty devolved on D. Forrest Mitchell, prohibition enforcement director. McCormick declared that a letter written to him by Mitchell in connection with expenses incurred by Lawrence after he became a witness for the government tended definitely to establish that Mitchell was responsible for Lawrence's appearance whenever the government deemed it necessary.

'LUCKY' BALDWIN HEIRS END STRIFE

Litigation over Lucky Baldwin's estate, which has been ended with the filing in Los Angeles of an agreement between the heirs in which a compromise is arrived at in a division of the estate, according to reports which have been received here from the Southern California city.

The agreement was drawn up June 1, and was filed in Los Angeles last Tuesday. It provides that Mrs. Clara Baldwin Stocker, daughter of the famous horseman who inherited one-half of the estate, is not to dispossess of any of her property except for a "valuable and adequate consideration," and she also is required to execute a deed for one-half of the inherited property to her two children, Albert Stocker and Rosebud D. Mullender, with the understanding they are not to cause her further annoyance or expense in connection with litigation.

The litigation arose when the two children charged Mrs. Stocker with incompetency after she had given $50,000 of the estate to Walter McGlinchey, an employee, a court has declared Mrs. Stocker competent but the right of the children to appeal was reserved.

Oakland Marine Goes To Officers' School

Among the sixty-eight marines recently selected from the entire marine corps of over 21,000 men to attend the officers' training school at Washington, D. C., is James Utton Meyer, an Oakland man and husband of Mrs. Alice Lawson Meyer of 2338 Humboldt avenue. Meyer was stationed with the U. S. Marine detachment of the Naval Training Station at Great Lakes, Ill., at the time of his transfer to Washington.

Meyer, who had obtained the rank of Quartermaster Sergeant prior to his transfer, first enlisted in the navy in 1917 for the duration of the late war, and reenlisted some time subsequent to the signing of the armistice.

The foolish man who built his house on the sand

He gave an example in folly which anybody can understand. It isn't so easy, however, to sense the mistake of trying to build the body on foods which lack essential nourishment.

Here, again, is a foundation of sand which gives 'way when the test comes.

Many a food that tastes good lacks honesty of nourishment to equal its taste. Thus it tempts the appetite into mistakes that often are costly.

Grape-Nuts is a food which helps build bodily endurance for life's stress and storm. The full nourishment of wheat and malted barley, together with the vital mineral salts so necessary to bone structure and red blood corpuscles, with phosphates for the brain, is retained in Grape-Nuts. The long baking process by which Grape-Nuts is made gives the food a natural sweetness and an unusual ease of digestibility and assimilation.

Served with cream or milk, Grape-Nuts is fully nourishing, and whether eaten as a cereal at breakfast or lunch, or made into a pudding for dinner, Grape-Nuts has a particular delight for the appetite. Sold by grocers.

BELDING BROS. & CO.
SILK MANUFACTURERS
902 BROADWAY NEW YORK

Lever Bros. Co.,
Cambridge, Mass.

Gentlemen
We have found Lux to be ideal for washing silks because of its great purity and gentleness. There is nothing in it that could attack the delicate silk fibre.
Its thick lather eliminates all rubbing of the fabric on the washboard or between the hands. This means, of course, that the silk does not "fuzz up" and that the threads will not pull or split.
We find Lux equally successful on our white or colored silks.

We are glad to see the publicity given by Lux to the safe way of laundering silks.

Belding Brothers & Co.

Belding Brothers & Co. is one of the leading manufacturers who have recently made a thorough investigation of the safe way to wash fine fabrics. For their own protection as well as their customers', these manufacturers are urging that their products be laundered with Lux. Complete laundering directions in booklet form sent free on request. Defendant in Murder Trial
Denies Authorship of Love Letter.

LAKEPORT, Oct. 6.—A love letter addressed to Mrs. E. D. Barber and declared by the prosecution to have been written by John A. Spencer, defendant in the murder trial, was introduced in Superior Court here late yesterday at Spencer's trial on charges of having murdered his wife. The defendant, in an interview after court had adjourned, denied authorship.

The letter, the prosecution attorneys said, was found in a desk in the Spencer home in Santa Rosa and was written in December, 1920, six months before Mrs. Spencer's body was taken from Clear Lake, near here. It began "My dear sweetheart," and told how "I write you in 'happy' hours with you." Mrs. Barber was asked in the letter to meet the writer that night.

Mrs. Barber was referred to by the author as "the letter" who signed his name "James," as "my own forever," and urged her to be "cautious as it may mean each other's loss forever to each other."

The letter was called at the afternoon session of court today was Mrs. W. A. Miller, of San Jose, tenant in a house owned by Spencer there. Mrs. Miller testified that before his wife's death Spencer declared "my wife is a burden to me." Afterward, however, Mrs. Miller said, Spencer declared to her that he was very happy.

Mrs. Mary Caldwell, who lived at the home of Mrs. Barber in Santa Rosa, testified that Spencer came to see Mrs. Barber very often, staying two or three hours each time.

The witness said that Spencer declared before the court that on many occasions she had seen Spencer's automobile parked in front of the Barber residence.

FORCED TO GIVE UP HIS BUSINESS

"I'm now sixty years old, but since taking Tanlac I'm eating and sleeping just like I did in the good old days of my boyhood," said R. E. Correy, well-known retired merchant living at 461 S. Hope St., Los Angeles, Cal.

For the last few years I found myself getting very weak and scarcely able to keep up. I had almost no appetite, was extremely nervous, and could get nothing to build me up and give me any strength. Finally I became so badly run down and weak I gave up business altogether.

"Well, I came out to California, thinking the change would benefit me, and after a while I started taking it. I've taken seven bottles now and it's nothing short of wonderful the way it has helped me. Why, I have a wonderful appetite, and I can walk all over the city without feeling tired. In fact Tanlac has helped me so much I can hardly realize that only a short time back I was a weak, nervous, run-down life now for the first time in years and I owe my health to Tanlac."

Tanalac is sold in Oakland by the O. D. Drug Company, and by leading druggists everywhere.—Advertisement.

A Stubbish Cough
Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, throat tickle, bronchial asthma or winter cough.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer use refined molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get a full antitussive family supply of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

It is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes of the throat.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Japan's Emperor Grows Worse; Has Disease of Brain

TOKYO, Oct. 6.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Emperor Yoshihito, whose illness has been causing alarm in Japan, is said to be worse, in an official statement issued here. It is declared that the emperor is most unstable, and that the imperial household is said that the emperor's physical and mental condition had become aggravated. The difficulty he has experienced in walking and holding conversations has been augmented, while his memory and capacity for attention have declined.

There are signs that he has been suffering from a severe disease of the brain, and it is recalled that during his infancy he was seriously ill, his malady recurring after he attained his majority. Since the coronation he has gradually weakened in mind and body.

An official statement concluded by saying that the growing volume of domestic and international business was placing an increased demand upon the time of the emperor, and consequently the issuance of a formal statement.

Morgan Financier Says Idea
He Discussed Recognition
by U. S. Is Silly.

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 6.—Thomas W. Lamont of J. P. Morgan & Co. stated today he was invited here by the Mexican government, as chairman of the International Bankers' committee, to discuss Mexican securities. He refused to give details of the probable trend of the negotiations, but said the report that he was sent to Mexico with authority to settle the question of recognition of the Obregon government is "too silly for discussion."

Elmer Dover, well known in American politics, denied he had any connection with the Lamont mission, and said he did not have a letter, as reported, from President Harding to Obregon. Dover said he had not been in touch with Washington for a month, yet he expects early recognition of the Mexican government.

The general expectation is that the Lamont mission will accomplish its purpose.

By GEORGE R. HOLMES,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The real mission of Thomas W. Lamont, the Morgan financier, in Mexico is not related to governmental matters nor to possible recognition of the Obregon government by the United States, but concerns payment of Mexico's outstanding foreign obligations, it was learned here today from a reliable source.

More specifically the international bankers who made substantial loans to the old Huerta regime want to know if the Obregon government is prepared to recognize the obligations incurred by Huerta and when pay, in whole or in part, may be expected.

POTATO DECLARED

BERKELEY, Oct. 6.—The potato is the king of all foodstuffs, Professor Thomas H. Hunt, dean of the department of agriculture at the university, told potato growers assembled from all parts of the state in conference here.

Problems of marketing, shipping and growing were discussed by state and national experts today at the closing meeting of a three-day session which opened at the university farm at Davis and was continued here for the final discussions.

Speakers included Hartley Trux, United States department of agriculture; Dean Thomas H. Hunt, F. W. Reed, state department of agriculture; J. W. Welsch, state department of agriculture; B. S. Resser, California Vegetable Union, and N. B. Boilevian, farm advisor for Marin and Sonoma counties.

BURGLAR ROUTED
IN REVOLVER DUEL
WITH WATCHMAN

Time Clock Carried by Night
Guardian of Plant Saves
His Life.

BERKELEY, Oct. 6.—A time clock which he carried in making his rounds probably saved the life of James Colburn, night watchman at the Suro-Separator company, at the foot of Gilman street, at an early hour this morning.

Colburn heard a noise in the rear of the factory shortly after 4 o'clock this morning. As he proceeded to investigate, a man sprang from the darkness.

"Get on up," shouted the stranger. Colburn promptly put on up, but carried with his right hand a revolver, which he promptly discharged. The hold-up man retreated with several shots, one of which shattered the time clock which Colburn wore attached to his person. Undaunted, the watchman continued discharging his gun until the burglar disappeared.

The police were called, but failed to find any trace of the man. The hold-up man was described by Colburn as 5 feet 6 inches tall, about 30 years old, smooth-shaven and dark. Colburn resides at 1219 Kains avenue.

TRUCK SKIDS;
'DRY' SNIFFERS
MAKE MISTAKE

A hurry-up call to the police and a telephone call to prohibition enforcement headquarters by citizens who thought they had discovered a truck load of wine, caused considerable excitement on San Pablo avenue last night near the Richmond-Berkeley line. The truck loaded to capacity with barrels slid into the curb. One of the barrels rolled off and fell to the pavement. Wine-colored liquid began to spout from a crack made by the impact.

Citizens who were bystanders lost no time in informing the police. A squad was rushed to the scene. Everybody gathered round to witness the arrest of what appeared to be two bootleggers. A policeman snatched the liquid that spouted from the barrel. Another sampled it.

"Bah!" he said, turning to the man who had telephoned in the alarm. "Grape juice!"

The truck, belonging to the Richmond Motor Express company, was loaded with Richmond products bound for Oakland.

Dr. E. A. Hanley Will Succeed
Rev. D. A. Pitt in First Baptist Pulpit.

BERKELEY, Oct. 6.—Dr. E. A. Hanley, pastor of the First Baptist church of Rochester, New York, was called to the pulpit of the First Baptist church at a congregational meeting last night. It is understood that Dr. Hanley will accept the call, and will take up his work here November 1.

Dr. Hanley supplied the pulpit of the church three Sundays during the month of August, and is said to have made a large circle of friends. The pulpit of the First church has been vacant since last April, when Rev. David A. Pitt, who had been pastor of the church for eight years, was called to the pastorate of the Central Baptist church of Norwich, Connecticut.

WRONG SKELETON
IN ASHES; MAN
HELD FOR PLOT

LANCASTER, Mo., Oct. 6.—Orville Dooley, farmer, mysteriously missing since last April destroyed his home near Coatesville, Mo., surrendered to officers here. He had been sought since investigators established that the charred bones in the ruins in his home were from a skeleton Dooley is alleged to have obtained from a medical school at Kirksville.

Mrs. Dooley, according to officers, abandoned her efforts to collect life insurance held by her husband when it was revealed that the charred bones were wired together. Dooley was deeply in debt to banks at Quincy, Ill.

AMERICAN
Pauline Frederick, in her latest dramatic sensation, "The Sting of the Lash," and Alice Joyce, one of filmdom's most beloved stars, in a startling mystery play, "The Inner Chamber," are the two features of the new bill at the American.
The Pauline Frederick drama is a play of the East and the West. It presents the Sierra heights where men stake out gold claims to the East where Wall Street gambles with the mines and gold wrang from the ground.
Next week comes "No Woman Knows." It is a graphic story of a woman who throws away the fetters of convention to work out success in a way startlingly original.
In the same bill Wanda Hawley, supported by Walter Hiers and an all star company, offer "Her Sturdy Oak."

ORPHEUM
The headlined features, each of a newly different type, will be presented at the Orpheum for the first time beginning with the matinee and afternoon. William Halligan, in an entirely new play, "The Mentor," and McKay and Ardine, presenting a new show, will be the featured offerings.
Neal Abel, the man with the mobile face and the endless supply of comedy, will contribute the principal number to the musical division,
and Louis Calhern, in a new play,
will present their feast for fashionable and musical. The Orpheum will complete the new bill.

Charlie Murray, probably the most popular film comedian of these famous on stage and screen after years of continuous activity in theater and film, is now at the speaking stage—temporarily. He has been booked by Alexander Pantage, ever the generous and generous, to appear in a new play, a monologue styled "Mousetail Gossip."
For nearly a quarter of a century,
Murray, as Murray and Mack, toured the United States, and who that was old enough to remember Murray's humor, does not remember "Pin-kney's" last!

LOEW'S STATE
The Boy Scouts of Oakland, Alabama and Berkeley are making their downward march on the Loew's annual campaign week at Loew's State Theater and are presenting on the stage an act in which the crews from the various troops appear.
Strong dramatic situations, elaborate settings and gorgeous costumes are the outstanding features of Elaine Hammerstein's latest screen play,
"The Girl from the South Sea."
The North Weynton Four, the famous kahoopians who headline the variety, are a quartet of clever singing entertainers, a well-known melody, who among other things, imitate the familiar callopes.
The "Lily and Emerson, Burt
Adler and Lillian Zeigler and Company complete the vaudeville.

EAT LESS MEAT
IF BACK HURTS
Take a glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if bladder
bothers you

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach,
constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.
The most common cause of kidney trouble is the uric acid in meat.
Kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

EDITORIAL
There is a new Everyday Spot Light on the market. It has the remarkable range of 300 feet and is equipped with a focusing device so that the light can be focused from a thin
stream to a wide spread. It also has a compartiment holding two extra bulbs so that your flashlight does not go out of business when a lamp burns out. It also has a shock absorber so that if the lamp is dropped the light is not liable to break. Never before has there been a flashlight with such perfect reflection of light. To perfect it a special Mazda lamp was invented. They are so far superior to the ordinary spotlight that you will want one as soon as you see them. Price includes battery and two bulbs,
$3.50 and $4.00.

BUY A BOTTLE OF THIS
It's Called "Blacko" Everyone should have a bottle of "Blacko." This substance is a quick drying black paint which can be used to cover metal,
wood, leather, or any other similar article. It is fine to brighten old
black leather suitcases,
hand grips, etc. It is handy to have in the garage to touch up the car when it becomes scratched and marred. It comes either in glossy black or dull
black and it is put up in a bottle selling at 25c, including a brush. It lasts
a long time and is waterproof and easy to apply.
"Blacko" does not dry up
in the bottle like paint,
but is all ready to use
whenever you are ready to use it. You want to get a bottle just to have it around.

A REAL BACKACHE PLASTER—GET ONE NOW
It would be a good idea
for you to lay in a stock of backache plasters if you expect to be away from home. We are not wishing you any bad luck,
but a backache plaster is a mighty welcome article if you are so unfortunate as to strain your back or get into a draft and catch cold. We have a backache plaster which we sell for 5c; that is made of extra heavy felt and is much
superior to the flimsy,
common kind that cost 1c and are about 1-10
as good.
Two or three of these splendid plasters ought to be included in the list of articles necessary to the safety and comfort of any outing.

Tola Negri has registered her second triumph on the American screen.
This wonderfully talented Polish armarvelous portrayal of Madame Du Barry in "Passion," now gives us

the alluring Carmen in "Gypsy

the Chimes Theater last night and

REHEARING ASKED BY ANTIOCH OVER WATER DECISION

Judgment for Upriver Rice Growers Disputed by the Delta Farmers.

A rehearing of the suit of Antioch and farmers of the Sacramento delta against the upriver rice growers is petitioned of the supreme court in an application on file today. In a recent decision the supreme court dissolved the temporary injunction granted in superior court and so removed the restrictions against the rice men using the river water in quantities desired.

It was the Antioch contention that water taken from the upriver places lowered the level of the stream and caused salt water to back from the bay up to that city. The legal question was whether this could be called "putting" the stream or if polluting implied the dumping of something into the water.

If Antioch is unsuccessful in its application for a rehearing it will continue with its fight when the case comes up for trial on its merits.

ENTIRE PACIFIC WARSHIP FLEET DUE NEXT MONTH

207 Boats, From Superdreadnaughts Down, Coming to S. F. Harbor.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.—The entire Pacific warship fleet, numbering 207 vessels, ranging from superdreadnaughts to mine layers and destroyers, will anchor in San Francisco Bay next month, according to the report received here, and the report is serving as the basis for the belief it is the intention of the government to make this port a permanent base for the fleet.

Rumors have persisted in naval circles that it was the intention of Secretary of the Navy Denby to designate San Francisco as the permanent base for the fleet and it is recalled that Admiral Eberle recently announced that this port is the logical base for the big armada and that Secretary Denby shares Admiral Eberle's opinion. It also is pointed out that naval officials have declared San Pedro harbor inadequate to shelter the fleet.

Secretary Denby is scheduled to come here in the near future to give closer and further consideration to the recommendations which have been made to make San Francisco the Pacific fleet's base.

The fleet includes 100 destroyers and a number of scaplanes. It is reported that the first unit of the fleet to arrive here will consist of two divisions of battleships.

LAWYER ACQUITTED.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 6.—Raphael Platanauer, well known Sacramento attorney, was found not guilty of stealing four cans of sardines from a local grocery store in police court here. Platanauer testified that he put the cans in his pockets and forgot to pay for them as he left the store.

Forbes Demands Clyde 'As Post for Veterans

Definite recommendation that a training center for crippled veterans of the world war be established at Clyde in Contra Costa county has been made to President Harding by Colonel Charles R. Forbes, director of the Veterans' Bureau, who has recently completed a survey of conditions in the federal hospitals and vocational training schools in this state.

Colonel Forbes, in an interview given out following the submission of his report to President Harding, backs up his recommendation for the establishment of a big center, with the best of modern equipment, at Clyde, with a declaration that the need is one that cries the shame of state and government. Soldiers in the "mushroom" vocational schools in California, he says, are being exploited, and are but parts of machines in a factory to turn out cheap goods.

ACCEPTANCE PROBABLE.
The prospects that the former shipping board city which, for its pleasing colors, its large hotel, and general planning, has been an object of admiration, will be used once more by the government, that the small back yards now filled with weeds will be furnished with vegetables and flowers to householders again, and that the entire outlay is not to be chalked up as loss are advanced almost to the point of certainty by the action of Colonel Forbes, who made a careful inspection of the city when he was here a few weeks ago. Of the town, Colonel Forbes says:

"I have recommended that the town of Clyde, California, formerly a shipping board project, which is now not used and which has 123 modern bungalows and a 167-room modern hotel, be made available as a training center. This probably can be converted into such a center at a very small expense. I personally inspected the project and recommended that it be turned over to the Veterans' Bureau.

The present system of federal vocational training contains "decidedly too much theory" and needs the injection of practical methods, Forbes declared in his report to President Harding.

Colonel Forbes characterized the system as "unmistakably and absolutely wrong," and expressed doubt whether "very many men have actually been rehabilitated by the government and have gone back to their respective communities as wage earners and as assets."

"We have farmed men out under this system," he said. "It is nothing short of crime and slavery to put some men into some places they have been put. I am opposed to the sweat shop system and I do not propose to let more of the former service men be exploited by mushroom houses that have sprung up merely to exploit the soldier and get the government's money."

Government hospitalization of former service men was said by Colonel Forbes in his report to be nearly equal to the needs, except in certain localities, such as California, but he added that it would be necessary to continue expanding.

Government hospitalization would continue to be a problem, he said, in continuing that there could be no justification by the government for failure to push to completion the permanent program.

He reiterated the belief that a government vocational university for former service men and women would be a measure to solve the problem.

CALIFORNIA HOSPITALS.

Need for increased hospital facilities throughout California, especially for tubercular, mental and nervous cases, was mentioned. The Palo Alto hospital should be abandoned or renovated, he asserted. The buildings were described as not being fitted for the work to which they have been put.

He said he had found a "very unsatisfactory situation" in California with respect to certain contracts under which men were being given vocational training. These contracts, he added, would be abrogated as soon as possible and additional facilities obtained under the bureau.

WATER OFFICIAL SCORES LACK OF FIRE PROTECTION

Head of East Bay Company Replies to Statements of U. C. Professor.

An argument that has borrowed a little of the heat from its subject, the fire in the Berkeley hills, was continued today when George H. Wilhelm, general manager of the East Bay Water company, replied to recent statements of Prof. Woodbridge Metcalf of the University of California department of forestry. Metcalf had been quoted as saying that the water company officials had estimated that there was no loss occasioned by the recent fires and that the company was not able to cope with such conflagrations.

Wilhelm's reply, in part, follows: "East Bay Water company officials did not state that little damage was done by the recent fire. They did state that practically no damage was done on the properties owned by the East Bay Water company."

"The water company is prepared to protect the trees on its own property and sent many of its employees to fight the fire on the properties of other people."

"Practically nothing is done by the eastbay cities to protect the magnificent forests on the hillsides. It is, without doubt, only a question of time before all of the trees will be destroyed by fire unless the cities take steps to protect them."

"The men employed for the purpose of fighting fires on the hillsides should be under the direction of one man and thoroughly organized. One quarter of the number of men who worked on the recent fire could have done more effective work if they had been organized and directed and knew how to fight forest fires."

"The East Bay Water company employs rangers for the purpose of

TWO GIRLS PAY NO FARE OVER 3000-MILE TRIP

Walking or riding with motorists at times, fighting their way through a sand storm and a forest fire are among the experiences of Olivia Howard and Bertha Hanson, who arrived in Oakland on their way to southern California. The girls have made their way without paying a cent of rail transportation from Oshkosh, Wis., a distance of more than 3000 miles, via Seattle.

Bertha, who is 18, and who lives in Buffalo, New York, and Olivia, who is 19, left Oshkosh on July 7. In coming through Montana they encountered a bad forest fire and their travels were held up for several days while they pitched in and helped the men get it under control. In the same state they encountered a bad sand storm.

Miss Hickman is rehearsing the act. The kiddies will range in age from 4 to 13 years and the act will be newly costumed after original designs by Miss Hickman.

The Order of De Molay is made up of boys between the ages of 16 and 21. There are now nearly 500 members in the Oakland chapter.

preventing forest fires, places trails and fire lanes on its own properties for the same purpose, and does everything within its power to prevent the destruction of the beautiful forests of the eastbay hills. The cities, on the other hand, have done nothing toward the protection of these hills."

NEW FIGHT OPENS IN PICKFORD CASE

CARSON CITY, Nev., Oct. 6.—An assignment of error filed by State Attorney General Leonard Fowler in the State Supreme Court in the divorce action of Mary Pickford Fairbanks, motion picture star, held that the trial court erred in nine particulars in upholding the divorce after it had been attacked by the State.

"The order of the trial court in quashing the State's action was 'contrary to and not supported by law,' the attorney general said. He held further that the order 'is a denial of the sovereign right of the State of Nevada, as a party, to protect itself against, and from enforcement of, fraudulent and collusive divorces, and contravenes the constitution of the State and the nation.'"

The assignment is part of the attorney general's appeal against the order.

TAX RATE HIGH; ASSESSMENT LOW; CHANGE URGED

All Is a Matter of Looks, But City Is Handicapped, Say Officials.

The Oakland system of assessment and taxation is made up on a too liberal basis which puts Oakland in a bad light in competition with other industrial cities, according to state-ments made by Commissioner William H. Hucius and President Marston Campbell of the park board, who suggest that the assessors get together and evolve a plan for a higher assessment and a lower tax-rate.

"It's all a matter of looks," says Hucius. "Our assessment is very low. Consequently, we must impose a higher tax rate to get a dollar than Los Angeles, which is high, often amounting to almost the full cash value of the property assessed. Los Angeles can assess a lot of property at a low tax rate. It looks good. The industrial plant seeking a location does not generally think about assessments. It looks at the tax rate. The Los Angeles tax rate is low. That is all there is to it."

"The actual amount extracted from the taxpayer might be the same in both cities, but this is not apparent on the surface."

"If we assess a $1000 piece of property at $100, we must necessarily impose a higher tax rate to get a dollar than Los Angeles, which might assess that same property at its full $1000."

"I am not particularly advocating any kind of taxation. I'm not even boosting for a higher valuation. But industrially I believe that Oakland suffers because of a comparison which is unfair to this city. The assessors ought to get together and evolve some system for Oakland which would give us a better looking tax rate."

The same matter of assessment came up at the recent meeting of the board of park directors, when Chairman Marston Campbell complained that Oakland's park scheme is much retarded by the lack of public funds.

"The trouble is that our assessment is so low that we cannot impose a high tax rate to bring money," said Campbell. "If we were to add a few cents for park purposes the taxpayers would feel it. But if the assessments were higher and the rate lower, the necessary money for desirable improvements could be raised without so much protest."

Nearly all the city officials agree that Oakland's assessed valuation is very low. Some, however, paint an optimistic picture of it.

"If Oakland, with a low valuation, can also succeed through with a low tax rate," they say, "then Oakland will stand at the head of all Pacific Coast cities. It cannot be achieved very well just now, but something must be done to attract industries and investors."

Finery Was Taken For Unborn Babe, Explains Mother

MRS. RALPH CASERO, daughter of millionaire whom financial difficulties are pursuing.

Disinherited Daughter of H. Hart Charged With Fraud

She can live in poverty, but for her unborn babe she must have pretty clothes, Mrs. Ralph Casero, formerly Ruth Hart, adopted daughter of H. H. Hart, Claremont millionaire, tearfully told Police Detective Andrew Gaughran of San Francisco, yesterday when he interviewed her concerning the charge preferred against her for obtaining goods under false pretenses.

Mrs. Casero, adopted daughter of Hart, was reared in luxury until she married Ralph Casero, her father's chauffeur. With her husband she was charged by Hart because he had dared to marry his daughter, the young couple, who sturdily declared that they would make their own way, since last May have been living in poverty.

And the young wife, not regretting the luxury she had enjoyed, declared for love, became apprehensive for the little stranger soon to enter the world. Yielding at last to a desire for pretty things for her unborn babe, Mrs. Casero entered a department store and ordered clothing and finery valued at $500, which she had charged to her father, just as she did before she was disinherited.

When Hart refused to assume responsibility for the bills, Detective Gaughran declined to arrest the expectant young wife, it was declared by the police, because of the circumstances under which the property had been taken. Instead, Gaughran comforted the troubled bride and returned the clothing to the department store.

Mrs. Casero is still at the home of her mother-in-law at 155 Oak street, San Francisco.

Tracy Will Dig New Water Supply Well

STOCKTON, Oct. 6.—The city trustees of Tracy last night ordered a new deep well bored to furnish the town with a water supply, following the report of an expert that the new well "must be put down, as the old one has caved in and is useless. It is expected that the new well will be completed within two weeks and the town will then be supplied with water. The new well depends on a well of the Southern Pacific for domestic purposes. In case of fire, an engine will pump from the big irrigation ditch into the mains.

PHONE COMPANY MANAGER SAYS WORK IS RUSHED

Holmes Replies to Charges Made to City Council by Mayor Davie.

The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company is remedying as fast as possible all congested wire conditions, according to a statement of telephones, and is not discriminating in the service rendered new subscribers, according to an official statement issued today by J. D. Holmes, manager of the company's Oakland office.

Holmes' statement is in reply to charges brought to the attention of the City Council yesterday by Mayor Davie, alleging that the telephone company is not giving adequate service, is dilatory in installing phones, and "favors" certain subscribers.

As a result, the council heeded Mayor Davie's request for a searching investigation, and instructed City Attorney Leon Gray to conduct the survey.

WILL SUBMIT FINDINGS

One of the first steps taken today was a questionnaire which is to be sent to all city clubs and improvement organizations, asking them to canvass their members for complaints relative to delays in installing service. Gray declared the investigation will be thorough, and his findings in all probability will be submitted to the State Railroad Commission.

Holmes admits there is some congestion in the wire service, but asserts that it is not general and is confined to some sections in which the company has been unable to keep up with the city's growth. He said he had not received any official complaint from the city, and that all individual complaints relative to service are being expedited.

NEW WORK RUSHED

"We know that in some sections of the city our cables are filled to their capacity, and that orders for telephone service are being delayed until certain construction work can be completed," says Holmes. "This condition, however, does not cover the entire city. In those congested localities new work is being rushed as fast as possible, and every effort is being made to catch up and keep pace with the growth. At the present time there is more work being done in the city at a greater rate than ever before. This year the company will spend about $200,000 in Oakland alone to enlarge its plant. So far this year the telephone company has installed more than 10,000 new lines, which exceeds the number added last year for the corresponding period. This increase is next to the largest that has been made by any big city on the Pacific Coast in proportion to its size, and indicates the extent to which Oakland is growing."

At present there are only 428 orders for new telephone lines pending in Oakland, and these are being completed just as fast as facilities can be furnished.

CAREFULLY PLANNED

"Telephone service cannot be installed in any haphazard or piecemeal manner. Every construction project must be carefully planned and engineered and then the equipment manufactured before even the work of erecting the equipment begins. Naturally, it takes time to catch up when you stop plant extension work for any length of time, especially when the city is growing so fast. This condition is not at all unique to Oakland, but covers most localities throughout the country."

"The manufacturing end of our business, the Western Electric Company, is working at top speed to produce our equipment and our construction crews are installing it as fast as it can be obtained. After this equipment is installed and facilities become available, installations of telephones are completed in the order that they have been received, and there are no cases of discrimination except in cases of severe sickness or similar emergencies, when a preference is shown."

Candy Company Did Not Display Sign

The Big'n' Whistle Candy Company was found guilty by Police Judge Tyrrell on two charges of not having a sign on display informing the public that the store of the company was being audited or not pure.

The warrant was sworn to by C. B. Heller, inspector of the State Board of Health. A third charge, that the vanilla ice cream had been adulterated with another flavoring, was dismissed by Judge Tyrrell because the chemist who examined the ice cream testified that he did not have a large enough amount to determine if there was any vanilla flavoring in the contents.

According to W. H. Peterson, manager of the shop, the offense was technical error. The missing sign had been removed while a mirror was being cleaned and was immediately replaced, Peterson claims. The company will be fined tomorrow morning.

Governor Reprieves Condemned Murderer

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 6.—In order further to examine into the sanity of the condemned man, Governor Stephens today granted a reprieve until Nov. 24 to Gaudet Singh, who was under sentence to be hanged at San Quentin penitentiary tomorrow morning.

Gaudet Singh, according to prison authorities, has been acting wildly and state physicians sent to examine his condition have been unable to determine whether he is sane. The man shot and killed his wife on a street in Berkeley last year.

Two in Contest For Presidency Of Labor Body

SAN JOSE, Oct. 6.—At the election of officers of the California State Federation of Labor, to be held today, there will be two contestants for the presidency. Seth R. Brown of the Los Angeles Typographical Union and Hugo Ernst of the San Francisco Cooks and Waiters' Union. Their names were placed before the delegates yesterday. Ernst is the candidate of the radical element of the convention, he having been nominated after Walter J. Yarrow of Bakersfield had declined. Prediction was made this morning that Brown would be successful in the contest. Nominations for vice-presidents by districts were:

- 1.—Southern California, Earl P. Nelson and H. McCarry.
- 2.—Los Angeles, R. W. Robinson and E. L. Bruck.
- 3.—Bakersfield, George F. Brock and W. E. Bauer.
- 4.—San Joaquin, H. R. Fide.
- 5.—Santa Clara, Walter G. Mathewson.
- 6.—Alameda County, J. F. Murry.
- 7.—Contra Costa County, R. V. Layton.
- 8.—Sapa, Mrs. E. Smith.
- 9.—San Francisco, James Hopkins, Joseph Mathewson and R. H. Baker.
- 10.—Sacramento, William J. McQuill.
11. 12 and 13.—No organization perfected, so referred to new executive committee.

Delegates to American Federation of Labor, James Hopkins of San Francisco.

GIVEN OVATION. Paul Scharenberg's nomination for re-election as secretary and treasurer of the labor federation was unopposed. He was given an ovation of several minutes by the delegates.

Among yesterday's speakers were: M. G. Boyce of the Federal Board of Vocational Education; A. M. Davidson of the campaign committee of the state war and power act; Professor Elwood Mead, chairman of the State Land Settlement of the California Education and Cooperative Union; Frank R. Buckalew, executive secretary of the Near East Relief.

DISORDER AVERTED

At the afternoon session Daniel C. Ryan, president of the federation, called upon Harry A. Ryan, labor organizer, to address the delegates. Ryan spoke long and heatedly, arousing Kaiser Bauer, San Joaquin labor leader, to a rebuttal. Ryan's remarks seemed near, but the disturbance was quickly quieted by the president.

A resolution introduced yesterday asking that the United States be urged to recognize the Irish republic will be acted upon today. Other resolutions that are to be acted upon by the convention, total twenty-one, the most important of which are:

- Urging national legislation to forbid the use of the National Government to assign labor business or advertising purposes.
- Urging state legislation to encourage motion pictures as a means of instruction in the public schools.
- Protesting against wage reductions in the navy yard at Mare Island.
- Endorsing the proposed state water and power act.

MOTORCYCLE OFFICER RUN DOWN BY AUTO

BERKELEY, Oct. 6.—Edwin A. Maeshner, motorcycle officer of Berkeley, is suffering from cuts and bruises today, while Miss Ella Shaw, hotel chambermaid, was booked at police station for violating traffic laws as a result of a collision last night at Dwight way and Shattuck avenue. She was subsequently freed on the explanation that, driving in a closed car, she could not hear the motorcycle.

Maeshner was chasing a motor law violator down Shattuck way when he declares Miss Shaw in her automobile cut across the street in front of him. His motorcycle struck the rear wheel of the car and was thrown overboard.

Despite his injuries Maeshner arrested Miss Shaw for violating the section of the traffic laws which prohibits an automobile driver from cutting in front of a motorcycle policeman when he is driving with an open muffler.

Burglar Refuses to Be Scared by Lad

TRACY, Oct. 6.—Fourteen-year-old Vance Brown was the only member of the Joshua Brown family at home. He heard the rear door open. Thinking it was his father he called, but received no reply. Then he knew.

"Get out o' there!" he yelled. "Come and put me out," retorted the cool burglar.

Vance Brown did not. He went through an open window and made it in less than nothing to the Atlas garage. A general alarm was sounded and armed citizens took to the scene, but no trace of the burglar was found. Nothing was missing at the Brown residence.

NATION OBSERVES 'CANDY DAY' ON NEXT SATURDAY

Every Orphan and Inmate of Charitable Institution to Get Sweet Gift.

America's candy manufacturers and dealers will deliver a message to the nation next Saturday. It will bear upon the fact that candy is a healthful and other desirable attributes found in their products. They will "Say It With Candy" literally, emphatically and convincingly.

Cleveland's candy manufacturers and dealers have set out to see that every one of the thousands of the city's inhabitants is given a gift of a box of sweets and, to that end, have taken over an entire hotel as the base of operations.

Other cities are planning parades, pageants, unique display or advertising features to broadcast the message of candy and its allied products as an important fact in the creation and conservation of the public health.

EASTBAY CAMPAIGN

Eastbay district manufacturers and dealers are taking an aggressive part in the campaign and are prepared to bombard the general public with a mass of data and information bearing upon the candy industry. Aside from general publicity and attractive window displays several other features have been arranged and will be disclosed later.

For one thing, every orphan, every inmate of a charitable institution in the bay region will receive a box of candy. Marvin Hoffman, local manufacturer, plans to place a weaker live-room set on the lawn adjoining the Southern Pacific station at Franklin and Fourteenth streets and, during the day, distribute gratis approximately 25,000 packages of sweets.

Hoffman does not expect to have any trouble disposing of the candy but, as a precautionary measure, he is arranging to have some Hawaiian players on hand with a program of music and dancing and have the candy distributed by the dancers.

TRIBUTE TO CANDY

Those in charge of Oakland's participation in the "Candy Day" today may public the following tribute prepared by an inspired and known authority on candy as a big element in human happiness:

"Candy is good food, pure and wholesome."

"It is the universal food; it speaks all languages; it dries the tears in the eyes of little children; and it makes the faces of old age smile."

"It is the unspoken message from the lover to his sweetheart; it brings joy to the home."

"It is the advance agent of happiness in every clime; can as much be said of any other kind of food?"

"And the candy dealers chorus: 'No!'"

Meeting Will Plan Hospital Christmas

Arrangements for the Christmas celebration at the County Infirmary and Arroyo Sanitarium will be made at a joint meeting of the County Hospital Christmas committee and the Alameda County Hospital Federation Monday night at 8 o'clock at Hotel Oakland. Committees to have charge of the holiday festivities will be appointed and instructed to begin preparations immediately along the lines followed during the past six years.

Under the law the county cannot provide funds for celebrations in the hospitals. Public spirited citizens have taken over the responsibility of affording cheer to the several hundred men and women who are inmates of the San Leandro and Livermore institutions. Through their efforts last year a player piano, moving picture machine and a printing press were presented to the hospitals. Patients at Arroyo use the press in getting a monthly magazine, devoted to their interests.

Big Sisters to Hear Lecture on 'Hygiene'

Miss Florence Calderwood, U. S. Departmental Bureau of Social Hygiene, will be the principal speaker before the Big Sisters of the Public Welfare League tomorrow afternoon in the Young Women's Christian Association. Miss Calderwood is on the staff as the representative of the government bureau. She will discuss practical protective measures before the local women.

The Women's and Children's Bureau of the institution, under the city charter of Portland, Ore., will be reviewed by Mrs. K. C. Rounseville, who recently returned from a tour of the north, where she made a study of the institution.

Mrs. Sidney Haslett, the newly elected president, will preside as chairman. The meeting will be called to order at 2 p. m. A short business session will be held.

BLIND GIRL GETS PROPERTY BACK

Miss Grace Wright, blind as the result of a dog's bite, today was restored to possession of her property worth $10,000 which she charged E. H. McConkey awarded her out of several years ago by taking advantage of her blindness. Superior Judge Joseph Koford today ruled the property, located at Boulevard way and Crofton avenue, rightfully belongs to Miss Wright.

Miss Wright, in her suit against McConkey, admitted that since 1911 she had lived with McConkey as his wife. In 1913 she was bitten by a dog and when she recovered from the rabies she lost her sight. Because of her love for and trust in McConkey she turned over to him all her business affairs. She charges that he obtained a deed to the property in question by having her sign it under his representation that it was a check. The deed transferred the property to McConkey and Mrs. Mary E. McConkey, his mother.

McConkey fought the suit and the arbitration board of the Bar Association on the occasion of the 30th anniversary of his appointment to the Federal bench. Judge Jeremiah Sullivan, president of the Bar Association, and Attorney E. J. McCutcheon, stated the wisdom of the legal profession in congratulatory remarks which were responded to in a happy vein by the veteran jurist. There were many floral pieces and a general air of good fellowship pervaded the somewhat somber and formal surroundings of the United States Court.

Judge Morrow On U. S. Bench 30 Years

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.—U. S. Circuit Judge W. W. Morrow was today the recipient of formal congratulations on the occasion of the 30th anniversary of his appointment to the Federal bench. Judge Jeremiah Sullivan, president of the Bar Association, and Attorney E. J. McCutcheon, stated the wisdom of the legal profession in congratulatory remarks which were responded to in a happy vein by the veteran jurist. There were many floral pieces and a general air of good fellowship pervaded the somewhat somber and formal surroundings of the United States Court.

WAR MOTHERS OF NATION TAKEN ON EASTBAY TOUR

Delegates Who Attended the Convention At Sacramento Visit Exhibit.

More than a score of national officers of the organization, which concluded its annual convention in Sacramento last week, were escorted from San Francisco by members of Oakland War Mothers chapter. The motor tour included a ride around Lake Merritt, where the wild ducks are assembling, a trip over the Piedmont and Claremont hills, and to Alameda, and a visit to the University of California.

The guests later were taken to the Idora Park Exhibit by courtesy of The TRIBUNE, where they were shown the assembled industries of Alameda county.

Mrs. M. S. Murray, state War Mothers president, and Mrs. J. Waterhouse, president of Oakland chapter, were assisted in entertaining the eastern guests by a large number of the local women.

Myers, acting city health officer, who urges every parent to report at once any trace of sore throat developing in the family. THURSDAY, OCTOBER 6.

Our little book says that "William Longstreet, inventor of Georgia, was born on this day in 1759. If William really did invent Georgia he has enough to answer for, with the Klu Kluckers, the child labor, the bootlegging airplanes, and the semi-weekly lynchings. We shall concede for the sake of fairness, that there should be a comma after "inventor" and continue our studies. The result, and perhaps this will surprise you, is that William was one of the first to invent a steamboat. In 1779 there was born Nathan Appleton, the man who founded Lowell, Mass., and in 1809 a party who is deserving of special mention in our waterfront department. He was John W. Griffiths, whose contribution to the country was the invention of triple screws and iron keelsons. If you do not know what a keelson is you have never worked in a shipyard.

If the chance comes to read Michael Sadler's story, "Privilege," meet it more than half way, for here is a story of 1921 that carries all of the grooves and odds-billions of a fabled romance. There is to be found, in addition, several paragraphs like this: "The girl I knew to be Sally Freesteg, a sallow, secretive creature with sudden bluish-grey laugh that startled as would a yodel from an undertaker."

The population of the United States has been figured as five and one-tenth persons to a dwelling. Each home then should have its submerged tenth.

IN WHICH IS NARRATED THE NARROW ESCAPE OF THE SNAKE.

(Solano Courier.)

While taking some papers to burn in the court house last Friday, C. A. Geis stopped along side of a rattlesnake which sounded its warning. He went for a club to kill the rattle but upon his return it had made away in the grass.

Last night we heard, for the first time in our life, the native coyote crying on the plain. A lot of things have been said of the coyote which are not so. It has been said that its wailing sounds like that of a child in pain, the laugh of an insane woman, and the shriek of a soul descending the flaring shaft. To us it sounded like the ghost of all the squeaks that ever lurked in a radiator, the menacing song of the dentist's drill, and a bit, just the least bit, like the accumulation of all the creaks that ever inhabited our Sunday school shoes.

The sound of the coyote, fearsome as it was, did no more than stimulate us to investigate. In the interest of science we walked the plains, hid behind a stump and watched one of the critters scurry to yodel. The coyote selected a nice, clear space with plenty of elbow room, then started turning around slowly from left to right. He turned for fifty seconds, stopped and reversed. During this reverse movement he howled. We are, perhaps, the discoverer of the fact that a coyote must wind himself up before he sings.

From the very first this has been a terrible day. There was no clutter of contributors in the mail, for one thing, and so we started off with the prospect of doing all of the work. The most distressing circumstance, however, was that whenever we succeeded in making our mind a perfect blank the telephone would ring, someone would ask us politely to wake up, or another would bang a telephone book near our ear. We have been hectoring from pillar to post, and speaking of post, here comes the mail. Let's see, a verse? Just what is needed to finish up with.

WHAT A NIGHT!
The Evening Star was shining
When I rode out on the lake,
With the moon above me watching,
And the ripples in my wake.

I saw a million juicy ducks
All flying in the air,
If by the very number of them
Almost made me stare.

I longed to bring one down to earth,
And yet I did not dare it
For on this certain night you see
I was on Lake Merritt.

IF SKIN BREAKS OUT AND ITCHES APPLY SULPHUR

Just the moment you apply Mentha-Sulphur to an itching, burning or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a noted skin specialist. This sulphur preparation, made into a pleasant cold cream, gives such a quick relief, even to fiery eczema, that nothing has ever been found to take its place.

Because of its germ destroying properties, it quickly subdues the itching, cools the irritation and heals the eczema right up, leaving a clear, smooth skin in place of ugly eruptions, rash, pimples or roughness.

You do not have to wait for improvement. It quickly shows. You can get a little jar of Mentha-Sulphur at Any Drug Store. Advertisement.

TEACHERS URGE ENGLISH AS BASIC SCHOOL LANGUAGE

Lip Sticks and Rolled Low Ones Are Condemned At Convention.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.—A state wide campaign to make English the basic language of instruction in the public, private and parochial schools of California was launched at the closing session of the California Teachers' Association, Bay section, last night in the City Auditorium. The teachers will join with the American Legion in a 100 per cent Americanism program. The demand that thorough instruction in American history and civics be required of all students graduating from elementary and secondary schools was recommended. Support was given the Towler-Stirling bill now pending before Congress.

Miss Elizabeth Arlett of Oakland, the first woman president to be elected by the organization in the past seven years, formally took office before adjournment. "Professional Loyalty" was the keynote of her inaugural address. The 1922 convention city was not designated.

LIP STICKS CENSURED.

Declarations that the "moral Sunday school type of story is peculiarly sickening and unappealing" and that the old dime novel with its thrilling hero and blushing heroine did not cause half as much crime as the automobile and rouge stick were made before the teachers on the final day's meeting. Dr. W. D. Lewis of Pennsylvania discussed the proper kind of reading matter for the young. Good literature was offered as the cure-all for the modern school girl with rouged lips and rolled down hair by Miss Wilhelm Van de Goorberg of Los Angeles.

Nine hours of the proper bedtime for elementary school children, and 10 o'clock for high school students, according to Mrs. Marjorie Stuart of San Francisco. Lest the children of America slip from under the guidance of their parents, she urged greater discipline and interest on the part of the mothers and fathers and a closer cooperation with the teachers.

NUTRITION CARE URGED.

Establishment of nutrition classes similar to those in California, San Francisco and Berkeley schools all over the country was predicted by Mrs. Fannie Martin of San Francisco. Substitution of substantial, nourishing foods in place of colored pastries, soda pop and candy in the noon lunch was urged by Miss Edith McNab.

Slang is changing the English language, in the opinion of A. E. Reynolds, professor of language in Santa Rosa High school.

Need for the leading educators of the world to meet in international congress as a means of eliminating the hates that lie back of the slogans and flags of the nations was emphasized by H. B. Wilson.

AUTO INJURIES FATAL.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 6.—V. Basham died in a local hospital last night of injuries received when he was struck by an automobile at Sixteenth and J streets. Mrs. H. C. Coan, driver of the automobile which struck Basham, declared that the latter stepped out from behind another car.

Mother Winner in Court Fight For Her Child

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.—Mrs. Gladys Smith triumphed over relatives yesterday in Judge Graham's court in a legal battle to gain the custody of her five-year-old daughter, Helen Fay. The little girl recently was adopted by her aunt, Mrs. James R. Day, 489 Sacramento street. Mrs. Day represented to Judge Graham at the time the girl's mother had deserted her. It developed yesterday that Mrs. Smith had been ill in Portland at the time and had left her daughter with her aunt until she could return. Mrs. Smith spurned an offer to return to the Day home and the child was given to her at once.

CHINA EXPORTS TO U. S. FELL 60% DURING YEAR

SHANGHAI, Sept. 4.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Exports to the United States from China fell over 60 per cent in the year that ended June 3, 1921, as compared with the preceding year, according to a report compiled in the office of the American commercial attaché at Shanghai. American exports to China, on the other hand, increased nearly 12 per cent over the preceding year.

Hold-Up Witness Is Stabbed by Robbers' Victim

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.—The innocent victim of the wrath of a man who had just been robbed, Leo Szydlowski, 18 years old, after witnessing a holdup at Seventh and Howard streets, early today was stabbed in the left wrist. Szydlowski lives at the Idaho hotel. He was on his way to work when three men seized a pedestrian, wrest a suitcase from him and hurry away. It was scarcely daylight and Szydlowski continued on his way. The victim of the robbers, recovering from the attack, followed him, accused him of being one of the culprits and slashed him with a knife. A deep wound was cut in his left wrist and he was treated at the Central Emergency Hospital.

LINER BOARDED BY POLICE, WHO ARREST WOMAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.—Passengers on board the Siberia Maru, which sailed yesterday for the Orient, were astonished to see the big ship slow down as they approached the Golden Gate. With its motor roaring a police boat was following them at full speed. In it were Detectives Griff Kennedy and Harry Cook. They boarded the steamer armed with a warrant for the arrest of Yuyu Hayashi, a Japanese woman on board. Hayashi, who has a small babe in her arms, was taken back in the police boat to face a charge of embezzling several hundred dollars from another Japanese. She was later released on bail.

Love for Clothes Lands Girl in Jail

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.—Miss Ruth Ryke, pretty 19-year-old student of Los Angeles, is in jail charged with passing $200 worth of checks on local merchants in payment of clothes she purchased.

"I thought these merchants with lots of money would let me pay them with my checks," she explained. "I had no money in the bank. I have always shared what I had with other people and it seems only right that others should share their things with me. I was going to the law. I knew it wasn't quite right, but I never dreamed they would put me in jail," she sobbed.

Woman's Charges Are Denied by Hotel Man

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.—Mrs. May Truelson, who yesterday filed a damage suit for $10,000 against Harvey M. Toy, proprietor, and J. M. Flanagan, manager of the Mann hotel, originally began a criminal prosecution against the latter, according to a statement today by her attorney, Norman D. Cook. Toy, in a general denial, declared the case to be one of frameup and asserted that Flanagan had not attempted a forcible entrance of Mrs. Truelson's room, as the complaint alleged.

Mrs. Truelson's brother, E. H. Cochran, a public accountant, originally obtained a criminal citation for Flanagan, but this was dismissed when it was brought into the case, as I felt that it was a matter for civil remedy," said Cook.

Yacht Believed to S. F. to Hear Speech Of Harding by Phone

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.—San Franciscans who assemble at the Civic Auditorium on Armistice Day as guests of the American Legion will hear the first of the Armistice Day message which will be delivered at the tier of an unidentified American soldier who fell in France.

President Harding's message will be relayed by telephone to a national cemetery, where the body will be interned. The address will be heard over long distance telephone. Plans for the sending of the message, by telephone, were received yesterday by the local posts of the American Legion from the legion's national commander, John G. Emery. The address of Marshal Foch of France, who will join the Legion of Honor on the esplanade, will also be heard, along with those of other notables who will speak, including General Pershing.

Have Met Disaster

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.—Fears that the yacht Speedwell, en route from Newport, R. I., to San Francisco, and more than a week overdue, had met with disaster, were expressed today when the steamer Hatle Luckenbach reported passing a derelict yacht 40 miles west of Cape San Lucas, Lower California. There were no signs of life about the derelict, which was not identified.

TOWN MERCHANTS ARE ACCUSED BY MAIL ORDER MEN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Destruction of catalogues of mail order houses who are in competition with members of the chamber is the complaint on which the Chamber of Commerce of Missouri, Mont., its officers, directors and members of the Northern Theatre Co., of the same city, have been cited by the federal trade commission. The complaint made by mail order houses recites that since Jan. 1918, at regular intervals of about one year, the respondents have collected and burned catalogues of mail order houses soliciting business in Missouri and adjacent territory in competition with local business houses. The mail order houses petitioned the commission for action.

Have you made good?

If you have attained a fair degree of success you may want a larger home, or one in a more exclusive neighborhood as concrete evidence of your prosperity. This is a perfectly natural desire, and is beneficial, too, for it furnishes a strong incentive to greater effort.

Perhaps you don't wish to incur the extra obligation of a more expensive place until you sell your present home. The easiest way of solving this difficulty is trade the latter and a little cash for the house that you want. This is usually both the most convenient and most advantageous way of disposing of your property.

Merchants Urged to Aid Fire Prevention

Merchants throughout the city were formally asked today to cooperate with the authorities during the observance of the annual Fire Prevention Week, which will begin Monday. The request was made by William H. McGrath, acting chief of the fire department, who declared that the week will be held under the supervision of Commissioner of Public Safety Frank Colbourne and Samuel H. Short, fire chief.

For this week the merchants have been asked to place suitable displays in their windows to emphasize to the public the necessity of preventing fires. A city-wide plea will be made to keep Oakland safe from fire and its resulting consequence.

NUXATED IRON

Annually use these tablets of organic iron—Nuxated Iron—to build up blood, strength and endurance.

There are thousands whose bodies are aching and breaking down at a time when they should be enjoying that perfect health which carries defiance to disease simply because they are not awake to the condition of their blood. By allowing it to remain thin, pale and watery, they are not giving the natural life forces of the body a chance to do their work. Iron is red blood food and there is no better means for building the red blood corpuscles and helping to give increased power to the blood than organic iron—Nuxated Iron. Nuxated Iron comes in tablet form only and does not contain any ordinary metallic iron but only the finest quality of predigested organic iron which is easily assimilated by the blood.

ACTION AT LAST.

Here is good news regarding the United States Shipping Board. It is to be found in the address yesterday of Mr. A. D. Lasker, chairman of the board, before the Associated Advertising Clubs of the world in New York City.

Now, after sixteen months of procrastination and indecision, there exists a shipping board which for the first time is ready to consider the great questions of policy and the mandates contained in the merchant marine law of 1920, known as the Jones Act. This is the word from Mr. Lasker. And he recognizes that in the application of that law, as Congress intended it should be applied, may lie the ultimate life or death of America upon the seas.

Congress laid down a broad policy in the act of 1920, which is described in the preamble of the Act. We paraphrase that introductory clause:

It is necessary for the national defense and for the proper growth of its foreign and domestic commerce that the United States shall have a merchant marine of the best equipped and most suitable types of vessels sufficient to carry the greater portion of its commerce and serve as a naval or military auxiliary in time of war or national emergency, ultimately to be owned and operated privately by citizens of the United States; and it is hereby declared to be the policy of the United States to do whatever may be necessary to develop and encourage the maintenance of such a merchant marine.

With its mind on the early realization of this policy, Congress authorized the Executive branch of the government to take certain steps, important among which is the granting of preferential customs duties to foreign trade carried in American bottoms and preferential rail rates for commodities intended for transoceanic shipment in American bottoms. The President was empowered to negotiate new treaties with foreign nations if this should be necessary to secure these advantages to American trade and to abrogate treaties with foreign government which declined to consider revision.

During the fifteen months mentioned above nothing has been done toward applying the essential benefits of the new law to the mercantile marine. President Wilson declined to concern himself with what he anticipated would be troublesome negotiations with foreign government. But now a change of tactics is assured. Mr. Lasker says the President is wholehearted in his sympathy for the purpose of the Jones law.

President Harding was a member of the Senate committee which framed the law and Mr. Lasker said it was his privilege to announce and confirm that the same inspiration which guided the President in his work on the law as a Senator lives with him as President.

"His interest in the successful application of the Jones bill and the establishment of the American merchant marine has increased from the time of the framing of the bill until today, as his responsibilities have increased from Senator to President. No man living more wholeheartedly and determinedly calls for a permanent policy for American shipping than President Harding. No man living desires more keenly a permanent American merchant marine commensurate with American needs than President Harding. It is the inspiration and determination of President Harding that gives heart to the Shipping Board to carry the great burdens it bears."

This announcement by the chairman of the shipping board will vastly please the citizens of the United States, who have put up three and one-half billion dollars in taxes to build the merchant marine now controlled by the government. This great establishment consists of over 1450 ocean-going steel ships of approximately 10,500,000 deadweight tons. It is costing the taxpayers about $5,000,000 monthly to make up the deficit in the cost of operation, with about half the ships tied up in idleness.

It would seem high time that the questions of policy and the mandates of Congress were considered by the shipping board. Under Mr. Lasker that board has been completely reorganized and is now, he states, in a position to go ahead with the undertaking of conferring upon the mercantile marine the benefits designed in the Jones law. Very good. The country will watch somewhat anxiously the speed with which the government performs its duty in this connection.

JAPAN'S DELEGATES.

Japan is the first of the foreign nations invited to the Harding conference on the limitation of armaments and Pacific questions to announce the full personnel of its commission to be sent to Washington. The Japanese representation will be composed of four chief delegates, four secretaries to the chief delegates, and eighteen others representing the foreign office, three representing the ministry of finance, twelve the ministry of the navy and seven the ministry of war. As was predicted in these columns, Japan has selected of her most distinguished and able officials to speak for her at the disarmament conference.

The chairman of the delegation will be Prince Ito-Tokugawa, president of the House of Peers, and a member of the upper house who has been tremendously active in the legislative department of the government, as well as holding a high place in the councils of the imperial household. He has always been interested in movements designed to promote the public welfare and in public charities and is unusually popular for one of his caste among the Japanese people.

Prior to the restoration of the imperial dynasty in 1865 Japan had for many years been ruled by high chiefs of a feudal system known as shoguns. Had the feudal system continued Prince Tokugawa would today be the chief shogun. Thus in selecting him to head the disarmament commission the Japanese government has not only turned to a popular, industrious and trustworthy leader of her parliament and government, but to one of most exalted rank according to both traditions and existing practices. Prince Tokugawa is a clansman who occupies a powerful position in Japan, a member of the hard-fisted clique of elder statesmen to which the emperor always turns for advice and assistance when the popular machinery of government finds itself in difficulties.

Supporting Prince Tokugawa will be Vice Admiral Tomosaburo Kato, minister of the Navy; Lieutenant General Giuchi Tanaka, Minister of War; and Baron Shidehara, ambassador at Washington. The chief secretaries are all attached to the foreign office. They are Matsuura Imanihara, vice minister of foreign affairs; Tsunoo Matsudaira, chief of the American and European section of the foreign office; Dr. Kiroku Hayashi and Toro Takao, councillors of the foreign office.

The high character of this delegation may not be without a deep significance as the proceedings of the disarmament conference unfold. The chief delegates are men who hold the unqualified confidence of the Japanese people, except that small and insignificant section of pacifists. For instance, if Prince Tokugawa should happen to reject even the most reasonable proposition the conference might present he would have the Japanese public solidly behind him without regard for the merit of his action.

President Harding has comprised half of the American delegation to the conference by drawing on the legislative body—for Senators Lodge and Underwood. A third member is Hon. Elihu Root, whose contribution to public service has been in law, politics and statesmanship. The fourth member and chairman, Secretary of State Hughes, has followed a career not greatly different from that of Mr. Root. In comparison it is to be observed that Japan has selected only one parliamentarian and he is a legislator largely as an incident to the more important position of a chief advisor to the imperial government. Two members represent the military arms of the government, while the fourth is the agent of the foreign office. Accompanying these chief delegates will be a corps of experts to advise on army and navy matters and foreign affairs.

Announcement has not yet been made of the advisors to the American delegates. But presumably they will include the professional chiefs of the army and navy. The State Department is at this time fortunately well equipped with able and experienced men. It will be able to hold its own. But something more is required: There must be the power of direction of the conference, tactfully exercised, the genius for influencing Oriental and European panoply and rank toward mutual understanding and united effort. It is a big task.

President Harding is thinking of again urging upon Congress the expedition of the legislative work of the government. The Senate is moving with usual slowness. The tariff has been sidetracked, apparently until next session, and progress on the tax revision bill and ratification of the new peace treaties is almost at a standstill. Probably some members of the Senate will resent repeated requests for speed, but the President expresses the sentiment of the entire country when he tries to induce Congress to perform its plain duty.

Russia would not listen to the Root mission of 1917. But famine opened the door wide to let the Hoover food mission in.

NOTES and COMMENT

Viscount Bryce gets a hearing whenever he essays with an opinion, and his prediction that war clouds loom carry greater weight than the customary alarm. It is to be noted that the trouble will come off in continental Europe, instead of in the Pacific. This may be confusing to some of our home-grown forecasters, but if there must be a war we of these parts will not object to its being as far off as possible.

It has been tried again, this time in Alameda, but with the usual result. The train beat the automobile to it, and one death and a serious injury resulted. This may be serious, but it inevitably pays to use up a second or two of it in waiting at crossings till it is perfectly safe to venture over.

It may be regarded as singular that a top cannot be put to these payroll robberies. Notwithstanding that almost every day accounts are published of bandits descending upon outposts of funds in transit to pay off employees, youths and others still appear to start blithely off, loaded with money to meet payday emergencies, and thus afford a shining mark. It would seem that all such would be effectually bodyguarded, or watch kept and the bandits waylaid, or something.

Interesting story from Ukiah, of a man who loaded in a wagon a five-month-old child, in part of five small children, to go to the vineyard districts to pick grapes. Of course, it was compulsory to take his gun along—guns are necessary in picking grapes—and it is absolutely necessary when a gun accompanies five small children that it be loaded. Anyway, in this instance the gun was exploded, in placing it in the wagon, and the man's arm was shattered. The only satisfactory detail of the incident is that the five children all escaped.

It is considered etiquette in some countries to permit the potentate to beat at games and contests. In his heyday nobody outdid the former kaiser at anything that was socially doing, and there are stories extant of subjects who indignantly triumphed over rulers, incurring an ill-will that endured. But it is very different here. The President of the United States doesn't consider it beneath his dignity to admit that Banker Otto Kahn bested him at golf, one up.

Congressman Kahn says a rather surprising thing when he declares that the United States has no real friends. Taking account of the fact that the country steps on few national toes, and lends such a considerable hand in world emergencies, and patiently accepts rebuffs from smaller nations, there would not seem to be justification in its unpopularity. If the situation has been gauged wrong by the Congressman it will be good to learn it.

"The completeness of the display at the Arbuckle fair this year is a surprise, according to Howard, Commissioner of the State Fair. This Arbuckle is a town, and should not be confused with any other."

Spontaneous burst from the Woodland Democrat: "Yolo county people are eating deer meat from the mountains. The San Francisco consumers are eating deer meat from Yolo county."

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS.

The first substation to be constructed for 220,000 operation anywhere in the world is being built by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company on a ninety-acre tract fronting on the State highway between Vacaville and Sacramento, four and one-half miles northeast of Vacaville.—Solano Republican.

October 31st will be observed throughout the United States as Fire Prevention Day. In 1920 the United States lost 15,000 lives and $500,000,000 in property due to fire, 87 per cent of which was chargeable to carelessness.—Turlock Journal.

Where is the teacher shortage of last year? Gone. According to Will C. Wood, state superintendent, there are more than enough teachers to go around now. This shortage was due largely to war and post-war conditions.—Watsonville Register.

Pinchot warns the people to get wise to themselves. The water power monopoly is playing the hydro-headed monster to our Little Red Riding Hood.—Redding Searchlight.

JAPAN, THE GREAT SOLDIER.

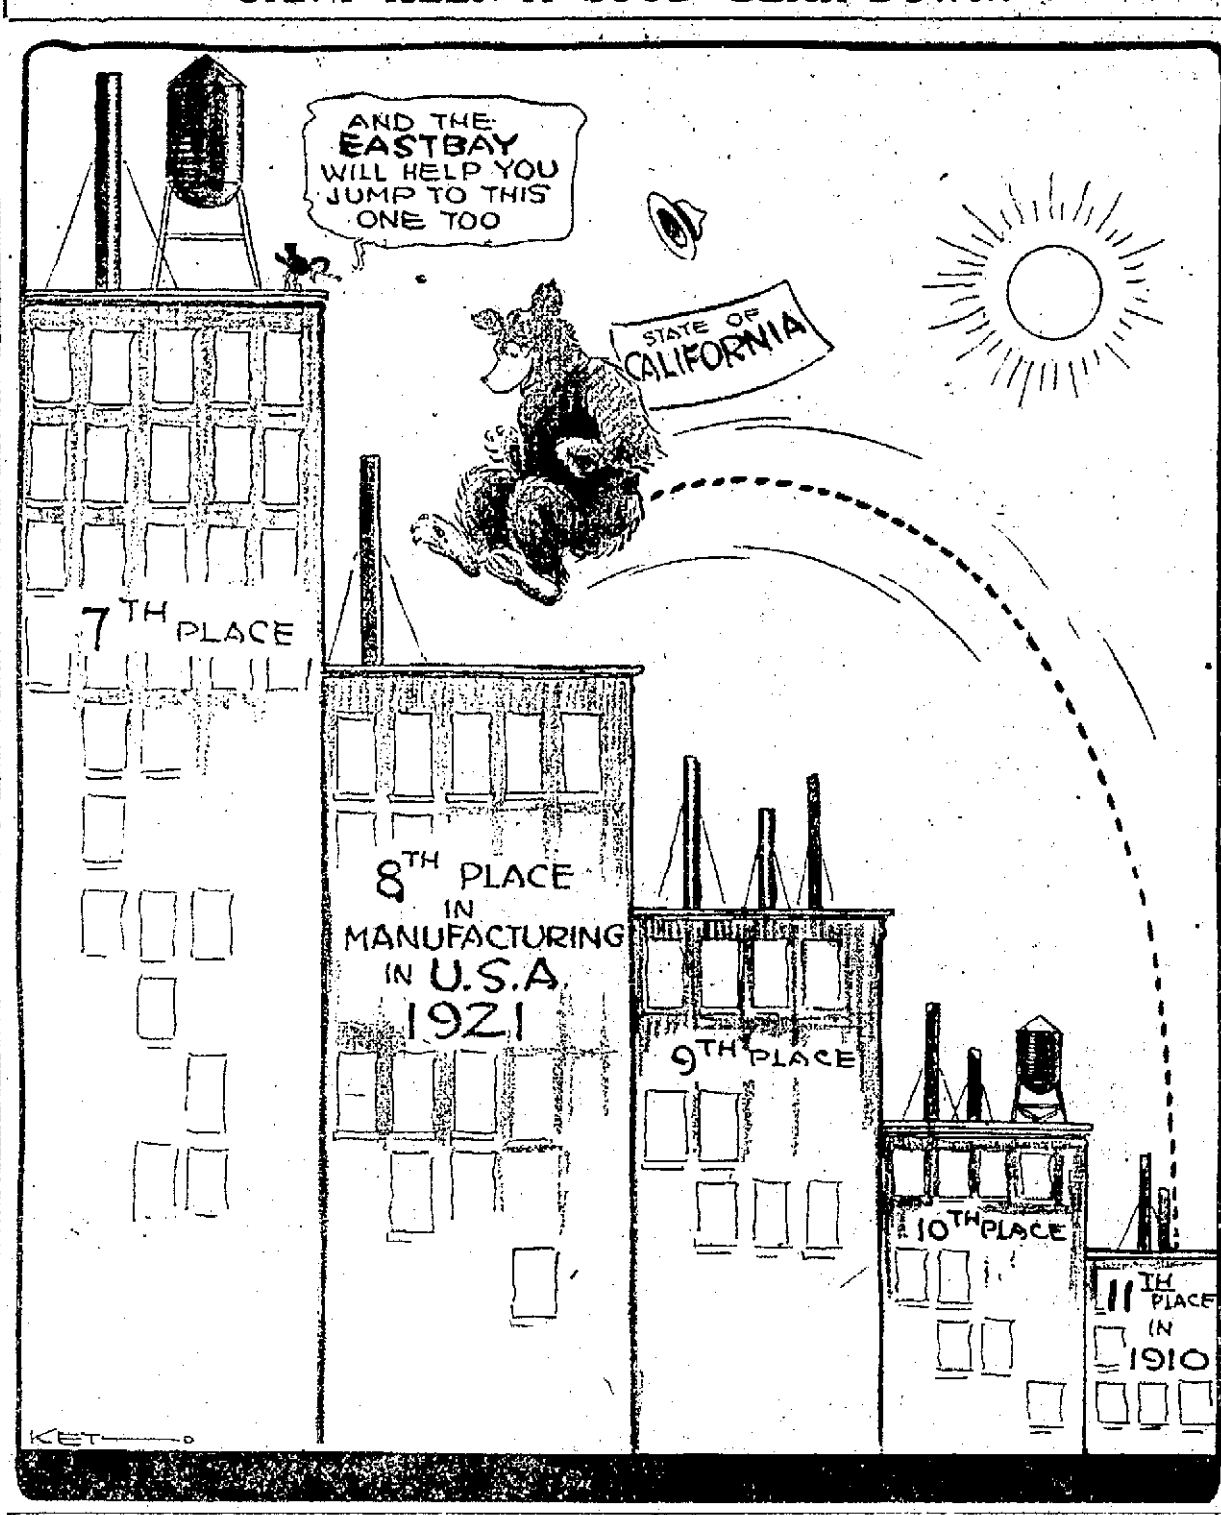

In her policy of maintaining a growing military power as her interests at home and in the adjacent territories and waters of the Far East go on growing, Japan is credited with possessing one of the finest fighting machines of modern history. But the technical perfection of this well-balanced and highly efficient machine is not the only thing which makes it of extraordinary importance in world affairs. The Japanese army is the overshadowing influence in home matters, not merely military but political, social and even economic.

The control of this high-powered Japanese army rests in a few hands—a sort of self-perpetuating oligarchy, thus becoming the virtual masters of the Elder Statesmen, the Mikado himself, the very government of the remarkable people who are now the dominant force in the Asiatic Pacific. Japan, the soldier, therefore looms big in foreign diplomacy as in home management.—New York Herald.

A REASONABLE QUESTION.

What's Congress going to do when a reconvened—continue the momentous anti-beer bill discussion or give some practical attention to the trivial matter of assisting some 6,000,000 unemployed to keep the home fires burning this winter?—Cincinnati Enquirer.

CAN'T KEEP A GOOD BEAR DOWN.

THE CHIEF JUSTICE

One of the best acts Mr. Harding has performed during his administration is the appointing of Mr. Taft as Chief Justice of the United States. The people of the nation look on this with a peculiar satisfaction, for the feeling is natural and decent that an ex-President ought to be treated with the honor and generous respect that clings to the high office he once held.

Not for his sake so much as for our own we ought to set apart in our esteem an ex-President.

There is something not only tragic but unclean in hailing a man one year as head of world's mightiest nation, and the next year treating him with scant courtesy.

The Chief Justiceship is a fit and dignified position for one who has been our Chief Executive, and Mr. Taft is singularly fitted, both by training and temperament, to occupy that position.

His mind is clear. His speech is familiar yet dignified. His common sense is dependable. His nature is sympathetic and genial. His manner is thoroughly American and democratic.

He has a strong feeling for justice, and while he knows his way about among the technicalities and traditions of the law, his strong inclination is always ready to pierce to the underlying equity in any case.

He comes to his seat as chief interpreter of our country's laws enriched by an experience no man's career has equaled. He has dealt first-hand with the Philippines and Cuba, he has been entrusted with delicate problems of European diplomacy, he has been a professor of law in one of our greatest universities and he has been the President of the United States.

It would be hard to equal such a curriculum of education.

None of these honors have spoiled him. He remains the same, good-natured, approachable and clear-headed man he was in the days of his early law practice.

That many have differed from him, disapproved his acts and questioned his motives, goes without saying, for no man could walk the high places where he has been and not be the target for many a missile.

But he has certainly lived down all question, as to his intelligence, his character and his honesty.

It is a great comfort, amid all the smart and clash and envy that characterize a partisan system of government such as ours, to think of this man safely placed for life in the position of chief interpreter of our laws.

JUST FOLKS.

GOOD OPINION

These are the lasting joys of earth—A home which shelters honest truth, A few good loyal friends and true, Who take delight in all you do, Clean hands which know no secret shame, And, first of all, a spotless name.

There are a few great treasures here—A kindly heart, a conscience clear, A mind which knows no bigot's chain, And yet for truth will firm remain, A voice that's quick to utter praise, And scorns the gossip's evil ways.

He shall be glad who walks erect, And wins and keeps all men's respect, (Copyright, 1920, by Edgar A. Guest)

"LEAGUE HAS NO CHANCE."

The League of Nations has no chance to live in the present international atmosphere. The United States Senate has had nothing to do with its success or its failure. The statesmen who made the treaty of Versailles and the other treaties of 1919 and 1920 did not let the League of Nations enter into their calculations.

So long as public opinion in Great Britain, France and Italy supports, or at least tolerates, the diplomacy of European statesmen, the League will remain a dead letter, and the victory over Germany will not have meant a step forward toward a new era in international good will.—Herbert Adams Gibbons in the Century Magazine.

Cornered.

"Don't beat about the bush. Answer my question. 'Yes' or 'No'?" shouted an excited elector at a political meeting.

"Well," said the candidate, mildly, "perhaps my friend down there will allow me to point out that there are some questions which cannot be answered 'Yes' or 'No'."

"Boosh!" exclaimed the excited elector, with withering sarcasm. "I am prepared to prove my assertion," answered the candidate.

"Now," he continued, turning to his interrogator, "the question I will put to my friend as a test is this: 'Have you left off beating your wife?'"

"Yes" or "No" should the delighted auditors, and the excited elector collapsed.—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Exchange of Courtesies. "What are you looking for?" growled the footwalker.

"Courtesy," rasped the citizen. "Believe me, I haven't it in stock."

About YOUR HEALTH

What Vaccination Does in Saving Us From Smallpox

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D. Commissioner of Health, New York City.

Two or three generations ago one out of three or four persons out on the street had "pockmarks" on the face. In almost every family there was at least one member who had blighted features because of this disease.

Even today, when it is extremely rare for a death to occur from smallpox, there is still a hidden dread of the malady, and the report of a case will drive a community into spasms of fear. "A smallpox scare" is a common newspaper headline.

It is not alone on account of the scarring of the face that we fear smallpox. It is not only a loathsome disease, but also a very deadly disease.

Jenner's discovery of the value of vaccination reduced smallpox of its old-time terror.

Opponents of vaccination have pointed to the very low death rate regardless of vaccination, in recent years, and have ridiculed the importance of this means of protection. They have laughed particularly at the failure of vaccination to prove universally successful in guarding against infection.

Last year I was in Glasgow, Scotland, while they were having quite an epidemic of smallpox. Drs. Chalmers and McGregor, the chief medical officers of Glasgow, gave me some very striking figures regarding the epidemic then in progress.

During one month 32 children under 15 years of age had the disease. Sixty-one of these children had been vaccinated years before. Now hear the chucklings of vaccination's opponents! Wait a minute! Listen to this:

Of the 21 unvaccinated children 18 died. Of the vaccinated children not a single child died!

In all the cases reported the vaccinated persons had just three times the chance to live that the unvaccinated had. These Glasgow figures are recent enough to show that vaccination maintains its wonderful record of achievement.

Like the other infectious diseases, smallpox comes on with chills, headache, backache, sometimes vomiting and then fever.

There is a peculiar feeling to the limbs, as if there were a shot under the skin.

A little blister forms on the top of the lump. Pretty soon the fluid becomes pus-like. In 10 or 12 days these pustules dry up, forming scabs. When the scab falls at the end of three weeks or more, a deep pock may be left.

There are many possible complications—bronchitis, pneumonia, soreness of the eyes, ear trouble and inflammation of the kidneys.

Careful treatment and care of the skin are necessary. Much may be done by cleanliness, cold compresses, and appropriate dusting powders to protect the skin and to prevent extension of the lumps.

The case and death must be watched and early attention should be given any lung complication. Good nursing and medical care go far toward decreasing the scarring and toward early recovery.

Needless to say, vaccination should be universal in every community. At least once in six or seven years it should be repeated. Under the careful modern methods of vaccinating the vaccine and administering it, the procedure has become perfectly safe.

AFTER 134 YEARS' TRIAL.

Just 134 years ago the convention at Philadelphia completed the work of drawing up a Constitution for the United States. The members dispersed, each man with a certificate of the document which they presented for ratification, although the best that could be hoped for, was after all quite imperfect. Today it is recognized as perhaps the greatest political document of all time, and its provisions have been studied and often imitated by constituent assemblies in every part of the world.

The fundamental laws of Switzerland, of the present Germany, of various South American republics, even of China, are in part based upon it.

This astonishing success must be ascribed to the fact that the galaxy of able men who contributed to the work interpreted their task as one of adjustment rather than of creation.

They had the perception of the fact that political and social institutions are the result only of centuries of slow development. So they evolved nothing, so far as possible destroyed nothing.

It was for them to place the tested institutions of their fathers in a new setting, the setting of a federation of little republics. And in the one instance where they departed from this program by creating a new device for the election of the President, their efforts resulted in complete failure. The Constitution of the United States has continued to meet the requirements of the nation under changing conditions, because it represented no sudden break with the traditions of the past.

Americans will turn a deaf ear to the advice of those who seek to cast aside our Constitution in favor of the untried theories of radical reformers. On the other hand there will be a hearty response to President Harding's wish that on the anniversary we should "dedicate ourselves to the supreme purpose of maintaining our institutions," and of "making them in the future, as they have been in the past, a beacon light to illuminate the way of progress for men seeking freedom everywhere."—New York Sun.

MIT STRAD HAS MOVED.

A Sunday paper, in announcing the impending funeral of Kahlil, says that he is bringing with him the violin specially made for him by Stradivarius. On the strength of this we sent a reporter to interview Mr. Stradivarius, but found that he had moved. He had not been heard of in his district since 1727.—London Daily News.

MENAGE OF CHARTER TO GO TO PEOPLE

Opponents of County Division Urge Holding of Community Meetings That Public May Learn Facts of Case

The various communities in Alameda county and the neighborhoods in Oakland are urged to arrange meetings for the discussion of the proposed charter for city and county consolidation, by headquarters of the Alameda County Anti-Division League today. The league is ready to furnish literature to the voters and speakers who will present the arguments against the scheme which would divide the county into three or four units.

The Alameda County Anti-Division League is organized with W. H. Gibson, president, W. H. Parker, secretary, and D. P. McCarthy, treasurer. Its headquarters are at 1224 Broadway, room 20, and the telephone number is 36, and the telegraph number is 363. Wells Drury, campaign manager for the anti-division forces, said today that a telephone call to headquarters would secure for any organization or speaker who would present the proposed charter, and urged that all of the voters of the county acquaint themselves with the facts concerning the proposed charter.

DANGER TO COUNTY. "The election date has been set for November 15," said W. E. Gibson, league president, today, "and before that time every citizen should have given the subject his thorough study. The measure of county division that is made a practical certainty if the charter is carried, the fact that Oakland alone is named the essential city, the district and limited appointive power of the city manager, the shoddy machinery designed for a larger area—these are but a few of the phases of this question that demand attention. The Anti-Division League will answer any questions, supply literature and furnish speakers for meetings."

PROPOSERS FOR MEASUREMENT. The Charter League, proponents of the consolidation plan, has opened headquarters at 315-319 Henshaw building with Allen T. Baum as campaign manager, and with E. W. Williams in charge of the information bureau. A subscription is being taken, the bureau announces, and one man, Frederick A. Baldwin, has contributed a dollar. The league will supply speakers favoring the charter on telephone call to Lakeland 1254.

Pardee Shies Detail In Reply to Thelen

Without furnishing the detailed statement of savings he had claimed would be made possible with the city and county consolidation, George C. Pardee today issued another campaign letter which he addressed to Thelen.

In the Pardee letter today the writer again explains that he understood the figure Thelen quoted as the Berkeley city taxes to be the former railroad commissioner's representation of the entire Berkeley taxes. Continuing, he says that had Thelen used this year for his computation instead of a year ago, the results would have shown a larger sum.

HOME RULE QUESTION. In reply to the Thelen contention that the charter would take away from Berkeley their most cherished powers of local government, Pardee says that the state legislature, the supervisors, board of health, and board of education now interfere with local government. Pardee says that the consolidation will save $500,000 a year and that until Thelen disposes this statement he will not furnish the figures requested by the latter in explanation of the sum.

The statement of Pardee follows: Answering yours of October 3rd: I note your frequent statements that I did not quote you correctly, but that what you "did say" was something else. You will, of course, note that I was always careful to say that you were Americans Defeat the British T. A. I.

British Team Again
NEW YORK, Oct. 6. — Jim Barnes, national open golf champion, and Walter Hagen, professional titleholder, defeated Abe Mitchell and George Duncan, British professionals, yesterday for the second time in two days. The Americans won 3 up and 1 to play, over the course of the Belle Claire Golf and Country club at Bay-side, N. Y.

As a whole the Giants played a ready consistent game, except that the pitching staff of Manager McVie was a little unsteady at times, although in no instance to the detriment of his team. Their inability to hit Joe Muesel was a little together with the unexpected dash shown by the Yankees on the base paths, the latter being the only thing that kept the Giants at what was supposed to be their own game.

"Bob" Meusel, the Yankees' heavy hitting right fielder, another focal point of the play, was seen to throw the ball toward living up to his reputation as a long distance cloutier by sending Phil Douglas for a hit in the second inning. The ball sailed over a triple but for a pop on the part of the Yankee member of the Meusel family. "Bob's" hit scored. Roger Maris' clutch second run in the second inning put the Yankees in a pinch to catch first in rounding the bag and was defeated out while standing on second. The same time the Giant dugout had caught the runner, the Yankees' and the ball was called for an out. Brown to first, whereupon Umpire

BUSINESS AND FINANCE

VERBAL offering of San Joaquin Light and Power's new $2,000,000 in 7 per cent bonds at par was made today by a syndicate headed by Blyth, Witter & Company, Cyrus Peirce & Company and Banks Huntley & Company, the latter of Southern California.

The offering, which was said formally would be announced tomorrow, comes as climax to an interesting demonstration of bond market advancement, and has been the center of a scramble wholly out of proportion to the amount involved.

Incidentally, the San Joaquin Light and Power Company, which is reorganizing these columns, has been making a study of the market for the issue some two or three months ago, has made an estimated $2,000,000 of the bonds through delay for mounting price.

The issue is an extended authorization of the San Joaquin Light and Power Company, which was completed only about three weeks ago, and which sold out at $97.50.

Application of the power company for the new issue to the State Railroad Commission was the signal for a general scramble to participate in the issue, arrangements for underwriting of which had already been made by Cyrus Peirce and Blyth & Witter, fiscal agents of the company. At the time of the offering, the company was in a position to place the bonds in the market, but the fact that the participation in the issue by the syndicate managers only received for their own firms.

The situation in the new issue market, Blyth Witter's Oakland manager, said today, is strikingly different from the one in the market for the bonds of the same company, which was sold at $97.50, having advanced in that week from the old price of $95.00 to $97.50.

This business is a religion

—with the men at its head
And —with those who serve it
by serving You!

The men who are making Foreman & Clark a great national institution would rather do just that—than play golf, go fishin', eat, drink or sleep.

Making work, play and hobby of their jobs—puts the big personal punch in this business.

Foreman & Clark will never outgrow their close touch with the public, because you can't outgrow homely, human, old fashioned friendliness and warmth!

Startling Methods like these

- alone could fire such loyalty
- alone could win half a million men to Foreman & Clark clothes!

You can't buy, brew or browbeat enthusiasm from a man.

The only way to get it out of him is—put it in him!

Our methods of operation are like a line of shock troops! First they felt a fellow hard! Then they open his eyes!

It's a hard blow to almost any clothing man chosen for this organization, to see his pet theories blown to the bow-wows.

Maybe he's been selling clothes downstairs, where they charge off $2 to $3 on each sale for rent. Now he sells them UPSTAIRS, where big volume and low rent cut that cost to 38 cents per garment.

Maybe he's been selling clothes (for somebody else) at four profits—now he sells them (for us) at one profit.

Maybe he's been selling clothes (for somebody else) at $50 to $75—now he sells them (for us) at $25, $30 and $35—while his practiced eye tells him these suits and overcoats are equally well made, from equally fine fabrics!

Maybe he's been selling clothes (for somebody else) designed 6 months back—now he sells garments (for us) styled less than 3 weeks ago, direct from our 5th Avenue New York workshops.

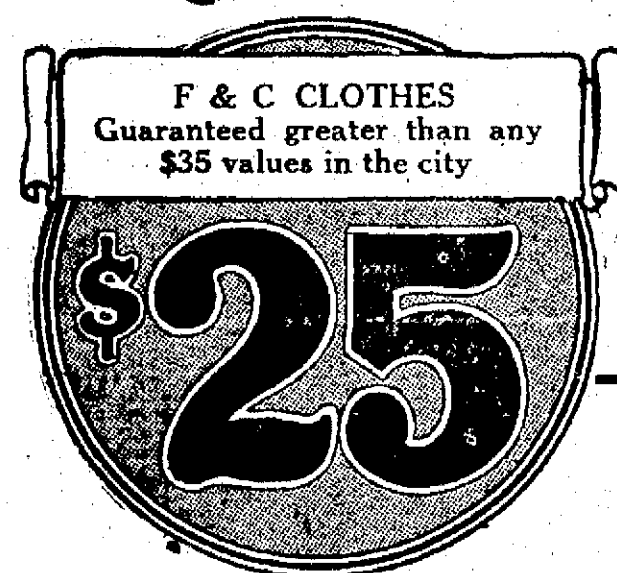

Maybe he's been selling clothes in plate glass and plush rug "mansions"—now he sells 'em in plain, clean UPSTAIRS salesfloors, without fancy trimmings—and he knows the difference it makes in price.

Maybe he's been selling clothes under a 35% "overhead expense"—now he's selling them at 18% overhead.

He's seen prices marked up early in the season, and marked down again for clearance—now he sees none of that.

No wonder he's enthusiastic! He's hard to "sell"—and we've "sold" him. He's a skeptic—and we've SHOWN him! He's "wise" to the tricks of the clothing game—and he finds all those tricks missing.

The reason we earn the confidence of the public, and keep it—is because we first earn the confidence of our men, and keep that!

Trade Upstairs & Save $10

Buy your clothes from the most remarkable clothing institution in America!

We operate a chain of UPSTAIRS stores all over the country. We save $497,568.00 yearly in rent.

We manufacture our own merchandise—on a big scale—producing 4000 garments per week in our own big New York factories.

We operate our factories on a 4% overhead, and our stores on an 18% overhead—less than half the usual cost.

We do a cash business entirely, and have no credit losses to tack onto our prices.

Our prices are standard—we never have mark-ups or mark-downs. No sales—no clearances—no bunk.

- 1 Coast-to-coast UPSTAIRS stores.
- 2 $497,568 saved yearly in rent.
- 3 $10,000,000 Guarantee.
- 4 Our own big N. Y. factories.
- 5 Cash business—no credit losses.

Our stocks are sold out and renewed completely every 6 weeks, instead of every 6 months. That means a small profit on our investment eight times a year, instead of big profits twice a year.

We sell every Foreman & Clark suit or overcoat under the broadest guarantee in clothingdom. Not a verbal guarantee, but a written document bearing our authentic signature.

We do more for a man than any store, anywhere—we give him more in value, more in service, more in guaranteed quality. That's why, when he leaves our store we know he's coming back, just as 83 out of every 100 customers "repeat" their buying here!
